

Test Your FAERIE KNOWLEDGE

It wasn't all that long ago that faeries were regarded as the substance of the imagination. Boggarts, Elves, Dragons, Ogres . . . mankind scoffed at the idea that such fantastical beings could exist at all, much less inhabit the world around us.

Of course, that was before Simon & Schuster published Arthur Spiderwick's Field Guide to the Fantastical World Around You. Now, we all know that faeries truly do exist. They're out there, occasionally helping an unwary human, but more often causing mischief and playing tricks.

How much do you know about the Invisible World? Have you studied up on your faerie facts? Put your faerie knowledge to the test and see how well you do in the following activities. When you're finished, total up your score and see how much you really know.

SCORING:

1-10 POINTS: Keep studying. In the meantime, you should probably steer clear of faeries of any kind.

11-20 POINTS: Pretty good! You might be able to trick a pixie, but you couldn't fool a phooka.

21-30 POINTS: Wow. You're almost ready to tangle with a troll!

31-39 POINTS: Impressive! You seem to know a lot about the faerie world — perhaps you're a changeling...

40 POINTS: Arthur Spiderwick? Is that you?

MY SCORE: _____

Test Your FAERIE KNOWLEDGE PART 1

At any moment, you could stumble across a fantastical creature of the faerie world. You might catch a glimpse of a pixie in your drawer or see a griffin soaring in the distance. Would you know what kind of creature you were seeing?
