SINOPSIS

Basada en la novel·la de Suzanne Collins. A Els Jocs de la Fam: En flames, Katniss Everdeen torna a casa sana i estalviada després de guanyar els Jocs de la Fam al costat del seu tribut Peeta Mellark. Guanyar significa haver de deixar enrere família i amics, i embarcar-se en la "Gira de la Victòria" pels diferents districtes del país. Al llarg del camí, Katniss s'adona que una rebel·lions comença a gestar, però al Capitoli continua tot sota control mentre el President Snow organitza els propers Jocs de la Fam (el vasallatge).

ACTIVITY THREE - THE WEAPONS IN CATCHING FIRE

The tributes in The Hunger Games are given weapons and supplies when the games begin. They must get them at the Cornucopia, which is situated at the center of the arena.

- 1. Read the names of the weapons that appear in the film and then try to match them to the correct image: bow, gun, bomb, machete, cannon, spear, arrow, whips, trident, etc.
2. On the next page, match each word to the correct definition.

ACTIVITY FOUR

WHICH TRIBUTE IS DESCRIBED?

The Capitol designs a plan to kill Katniss: The Quarter Quell. This means that victors from previous Hunger Games will be the tributes for the 75th Games. This time, the tributes will be more violent and dangerous, as they have already survived the previous games. Read these seven descriptions and match them to the correct image. Attention: one of tributes is not described.

One year after the 74th Hunger Games, Katniss and Peeta Mellark return to district 12 apocalyptic country after a war in the Capitol. Katniss survived the games and this was interesting against all powerful Capitol. Peeta's rebellion, so he warns Katniss to calm down during the Victory Tour around the district. Katniss is the eccentric Effie Trinket. During their visit, Katniss kills a black old man holds up three fingers in honor to Katniss, but then he is taken killed in front of everyone, showing he will not accept rebellion from anyone. Katniss gets furious, but Haymitch, the Capitol, advises her to be careful, as the Capitol lives now with her mum and her sister house in Victor's Village, but they are planning to run away with Gale, her love.

ACTIVITY TWO: GUESS THE NAMES OF THE CHARACTERS In activity one you have read about the story of Catching Fire and a lot of characters have been introduced. Here you have the photographs of the protagonists but the letters in their names are mixed. Re-read the text and write the correct names. To help you a little, they come in three different groups: DISTRICT 12 - THE TRIBUTES.

"TIME" TALKS TO THE WRITER CREATOR

With The Hunger Games: Catching Fire opens "TIME" book critic Lev Grossman recently sat down for conversation with Hunger Games creator-writer Fire director Francis Lawrence.

Compare Katniss at the beginning of the conversation with Hunger Games creator-writer Fire director Francis Lawrence.

Francis Lawrence: Well, Katniss is different games. I think that was one of the things that the material and about this book was that it reflects that the games have on people, the e...

Suzanne Collins: She's got a lot of class symptoms. She has nightmares. She has flashbacks. She can see her practicing avoidance. She's got a lot of things that she's trying to stay away from associated with him except some very early on with the Games. She's conflicted to some degree because she couldn't save Rue. So she's method of dealing with it is to go to the woods as far away as possible, because there just a...

SUZANNE COLLINS, AUTORA DEL LIBRO

Suzanne Collins nació en 1962 en Hartford, Connecticut, Estados Unidos. Es escritora y guionista. Vive en Connecticut con Cap Pylor, su marido, i sus hijos Charlie i Isabel.

La carrera de Suzanne empezó en 1991, como guionista en programas de televisión para niños. También fue la guionista principal de Clifford, el gran perro rojo (en inglés Clifford Puppy Day) y recibió una nominación de la Writers Guild of America por coescribir Santa, Baby, un especial de Navidad.

El conocer al autor de libros para niños, James Preimes, mientras trabajaba en un programa de televisión, le inspiró para escribir libros para niños por su cuenta. La inspiración de su primer libro, Gregor el Subterráneo: de la saga Los Crónistas de las Torres Rojas, le vino en parte de Alicia en el país de las maravillas.

Collins también ha escrito un libro de imágenes que riman, ilustrado por Mike Lester, titulado Cuando Charlie McButton perdió el poder.

La autora ha alcanzado fama mundial gracias a su novela Los Juegos del hambre, la primera de una trilogía. El libro se ha hecho muy famoso, y más después de la película homónima estrenada en 2012. La trilogía continúa con la secuela En flames, que salió a la venta en 2009 en Estados Unidos, y el último libro de la serie, Sinocap, publicado en 2010.
